There are MANY coaches in the sport of Track and Field (Athletics) with a tremendous amount of knowledge, experience, and wisdom. You can be counted in this group.

We strongly believe that one of the best ways to give to the improvement of our sport is by coaches sharing their knowledge and experience with other coaches, athletes, and other interested parties. The two primary ways to do this is by making a presentation at a clinic and by writing an article.

Have you ever considered sharing your knowledge with others by writing an article or two (or more)?

Those coaches who have written articles and have had them published in the past have done so for the goodness of the sport and with little to no compensation for their efforts. Most publications do NOT offer an honorarium for the articles that they publish. The honorarium, from the few publishers that that provide one, amounts to a few hundred US dollars.

We are proud to announce an alternative to the standard publishing industry.

Glass Dragon Digital Publishing is seeking high quality papers on all aspects of Athletics (Track & Field, Long, Distance Running, Cross Country Running, Race Walking, Ultra Running, Trail Running, and Mountain Running) for our web site.

These papers will be sold on our web site at a very reasonable rate. The ordering process is completely automated, easy to use, and is available on a 24/7/365 basis. Customers will receive the

We offer royalties of 50% on all sales, beginning with the first. Our web site already has a truly international reach. In December 2006, a typical month, we had visitors from 64 countries from all areas of the world. Thus, articles receive wide exposure as soon as they are published.
